2016 Ohio Educator Preparation Provider Performance Report Defiance College

Teacher Residency Program

Reporting Period from Sept 1, 2015 to Aug 31, 2016 (Data Source: Defiance College)

Description of Data:

The Resident Educator Program in Ohio encompasses a robust four-year teacher development system. The data below show the persistence of Ohio Educator Preparation Provider graduates through the program. Of note, a Resident Educator entering a program year may fail to complete all the program year requirements within the same academic year. Within set parameters, the individual may re-attempt the program year requirements in the subsequent academic year. These rare instances may affect the reported data, for example, showing persistence rates greater than 100 percent for a particular program year.
