Application Criteria

The Defiance College Service Leader Program awards scholarships in the amount of $2,000 for new full-time students who demonstrate a record of service in their communities. Through the McMaster School for Advancing Humanity, Service Leaders participate in unique and exciting programs that develop their leadership skills and strengthen their individual career interests. Leadership workshops address topics of diversity, conflict resolution, community leadership, and asset-based community development. Service Leaders may also have opportunities for potential service-learning travel experiences. The scholarship is renewable up to four years. Application requirements include:

❖ In 100 – 300 words each, please answer the following short-essay questions:

- 1. Why would you like to participate in the Service Leadership Program?
- 2. Describe your personal involvement in service activities.
- 3. What you have gained from those experiences?
- 4. How do you define leadership? Please provide examples.
- 5. What would you like to gain from the Service Leadership Program at DC?
