2008-2009 Dependent Verification Worksheet
Federal Student Aid Programs

Your application was selected for a review in a process called verification. In this process, your school will be comparing information from your application with signed copies of your 2007 federal tax forms. The law says we have the right to ask you for this information before awarding Federal Aid. If there are differences between your application and documents, corrections may need to be submitted. Complete and submit this form as soon as possible, so that your financial aid won't be delayed. Your school must review the requested information under the financial aid program rules.

What you should do:
1. Collect your and your parents financial documents (signed Federal income tax forms)
2. Talk with your financial aid administrator if you have questions about completing this worksheet.
3. Complete all sections below. Both parent and student signatures are required.
4. Submit the completed worksheet , tax forms and any other documents to your financial aid administrator.
5. Your financial aid administrator will compare information on these documents and make corrections if necessary.
